

Today's Headlines: Check out today's top stories

- Cash-starved Jet Airways cancelled all international flights for Thursday night and Friday morning even as it operated just 14 aircraft during the day – the smallest fleet among scheduled domestic carriers.
- Bengaluru is the largest office market in India and the biggest in the Asia-Pacific region.
- The first phase of polling for Lok Sabha elections saw long lines of voters in several places but concluded on Thursday with turnouts across 20 states more or less matching the voting percentages recorded in the 2014 Lok Sabha polls, according to the Election Commission.
- CSK skipper MS Dhoni has been fined 50 percent of his match fee after his fierce-on field argument with the umpires during his team's thrilling last-ball win over Rajasthan Royals (RR) at the Sawai Mansingh stadium in Jaipur on Thursday.
- Yamini Mazumdar, 87, mother of Biocon chairperson and managing director Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw, has been living in Kormangala for 19 years. She has voted in successive elections, including the assembly polls last year, but her name has been deleted from the voter's list, allegedly due to lack of scrutiny.
- The court said that West Bengal police had misused its power by obstructing the public screening of the film which was cleared by censor board. The SC ordered a fine of Rs 20 lakh on WB government for blocking release of satirical film 'Bhobishyoter Bhoot'